THE
SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE,
Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

MONDAY, January 21ſt, 1745. [Numb. 565]

From the London Gazette.

VIENNA, Sept. 23.

BY the laſt Letters from Bohemia, it appears, that the whole Town of Prague, with its Citadel, was given up to the Pruſſians the 17th. The Reaſons of General Harſch's Conduct therein are not yet preciſely known, but he is expected here as this Day, to juſtify his having ſo ſoon ſurrendered himſelf and above 15,000 Men Priſoners of War, contrary to his own Intentions and Reſolutions on the 16th, which were to abandon the Old and New Town only, and to retire with his Garriſon into the little Side and the Vyſcherad. All that is hitherto known, is, that General Harſch finding his Militia intimidated with the Pruſſian Fire, and the Burghers who had enrolled themſelves, more employed in extinguiſhing the Flames of their Houſes, than in mounting the Ramparts, offer'd, on the 17th, to capitulate, on Condition of ſaving the Town and his Garriſon, and obtained an Armiſtice for the 16th, during which Day the King of Pruſſia raiſed the moſt formidable Battery that has been known in any Age, and played it on the 17th in the Morning, at the ſame time that he ſignified his ultimate Pleaſure to have the Garriſon, Priſoners of War, the Commandant turendered a few Hours afterwards. Seven Hundred Waraſdiners, and a Company of Grenadiers, could hardly be induced to lay down their Arms like the reſt: With theſe and other irregular Troops who could certainly have followed, not to mention 13,00 Pruſſian Deſerters that were in the Town, it is thought that M. Harſch might have retired into the Vyſcherad.

After this Conqueſt, the King of Pruſſia having collected all his Army together, excepting 6000 Men left at Prague, advanced, according to the News which arrived laſt Night, more than two Poſts up the Moldaw, as far as Nettowitz, on this Side of the River Zaſawa; and General Lattorf, who is retired to Chrowitz, and has an advanced Poſt of 4000 Men at Kraſnahora, to obſerve the Pruſſians, writes, that it is doubtful whether they intended to croſs the Moldaw, enter the Mountains to the Weſt of that River, and there wait for the Auſtrian Army, which was to enter Bohemia Yeſterday, or to extend themſelves up to the Moldaw, quite to Budweis. Prince Charles will ſet out this Afternoon to join Marſhal Traun at Waldmunchen.

LONDON, Sept. 4.

THE Vendois making continual Incurſions into the Country of Nice, it has been found requiſite to remove the Military Stores, and the Spaniſh and French ſick and wounded to Antibes.

We learn from Hamburgh, that the Ruſſian Troops in Livonia are actually in Motion. That the Opening of the Poliſh Diet at Grodno is fixed for the 5th of October, N. S. That 20,000 Pruſſians are aſſembling at Memel.

The Ships deſign'd for Jamaica are ordered to take on board each of them 100 Marines, who are to be employed in Defence of the Iſland, and incorporated into a Regiment there.

The Ship Gordon, lately bought by General Oglethorpe for the Government's Service in Defence of Georgia, is now got out of the Dock, and will certainly ſail in three Weeks at fartheſt for that Place, with the Recruits for the Regiment there.

Laſt Saturday a Court of Admiralty was held at Doctors Commons, when the St. Peter, of Padua, a French Prize taken by the Salamander Privateer, Capt. Strangeways, was condemned as a legal Capture; her Cargoe conſiſts of 10,000 Cheſts of Caſtile Soap, 5000 Jars of Oil, beſides Leather, Brandy, &c. to the Value of 30,000 l. It is remarkable that when the Salamander made ſail to her, the Captain of the French Ship aſk'd his Men whether they would fight, upon which they all made Anſwer, they had been very ill treated by him, and were determin'd not to fire a Gun, and ſo immediately ſtruck to the Salamander without making the leaſt Reſiſtance.

Sept. 6. We are aſſured, that there were found on board one of the Domingo Ships, that ſtruck to the Dutch Men of War along with Admiral Baleſtier, above 60,000 Pieces of Eight.

A Storeſhip of 440 Tons, with Cordage Powder, &c. for Port Mahon, is taken and carried into Breſt.

Sept. 11. We hear from Oſtend, that the French have burnt and plundered many Villages up the Country, and carried 1300 Waggons of Forage; never were ſuch diſmal Accounts. A Detachment of our Army, about 18,000 Men, were juſt arrived near Ghent, but we fear they will not overtake the Enemy.

It is aſſured by ſome, that an Account is come, by Way of Genoa, that the King of Sardinia having received a Reinforcement of 4000 Men, the French and Spaniards thought proper to retire from Coni, the French towards France and the Spaniards towards Savoy.

On the 18th of September, N. S. Admiral Matthews, with the Britiſh Fleet arrived off Genoa, where he reſigned the Command of the ſaid Fleet to Admiral Rowley, who ſailed again that Night for Leghorn. — The next Day arrived at Genoa the Ferret Sloop from Gibraltar, to acquaint the Admiral, that ſeven French Men of War, (Part of the Breſt Squadron) were paſs'd by Gibraltar for Cartagena, to join the Spaniſh Squadron at that Port. — Admiral Matthews ſet out for England on the 3d Inſt. N. S.

Laſt Week above 500 Men enter'd into his Majeſty's Service, and upwards of 700 were preſs'd, in order to be ſent to America, to defend the Colonies there.

Sept. 13. The Buſineſs of Count Gotter at the Court of Dreſden, is in the firſt Place to propoſe new Terms on the part of their Imperial and Pruſſian Majeſties, and next to declare, that if any Saxon Troops enter Bohemia, it will be regarded as a Declaration of War.

The Auſtrian Army under the Command of Prince Charles of Lorrain, arrived at Ingolſtadt on the 9th, N. S. and the 23d is fix'd for the Junction of his Troops with thoſe of Count Bathiani.

A powerful Confederacy is forming in the Empire, in order to ballance the League of Frankfort, and it is ſaid, the Confederate Army will aſſemble in Weſtphalia.

They write from Wirtz, that General Schmettau has preſented a Memorial to the French King, demanding a Body of Troops to be ſent to cover the Dutchy of Cleves, and the reſt of his Pruſſian Majeſty's Dominions that at preſent are expoſed to the Allies; and likewiſe to inſiſt on the French forming another Siege before the End of the Campaign in Flanders.

His Majeſty's Sloop the Ferret, Capt. Burley, who went Expreſs from Gibraltar in queſt of the Britiſh Fleet, was chaſed by the French Squadron up the Streights, as far as Genoa, but he had the good Fortune to eſcape them. — As the French Squadron is now at Sea, we expect to hear of an Action ſoon in the Mediterranean, which is like to be the Scene of Action for Maritime Affairs.

Sept. 15. This Morning James Oglethorpe, Eſq; General and Commander in Chief of his Majeſty's Forces in South-Carolina and Georgia, Brigadier General upon the Eaſtern Eſtabliſhment, Colonel of one of his Majeſty's Regiments of Foot, and Member of Parliament for Haſlemere, was was married, in King Henry the *VII*th's Chapel, to Miss Wright, the only surviving Child of the late Sir Nathan Wright, Baronet, of Cranham Hall, the Heiress of that, and other his Manors and Estates.

CHARLES TOWN, Jan 21.

By Captain Thomas Crosthwaite lately arriv'd, our latest Advices from London are, That the Army of the Allies in Flanders, not having been able to do any Thing, are repassing the Marque, and were soon to do the same by the Scheld — That the French Army in Germany have re taken (for the Emperor) the whole Electorate of Bavaria; while Prince Charles of Lorrain was marching to the Succour of Bohemia, and indeed, in all Parts of Germany our Enemies meet with all the Success imaginable — That it is now believ'd the Dutch will not come into the War at all. — And that his Majesty's Ship the Victory, a first Rate, of 110 Guns, the finest Ship in the Navy, is lost, and a brave Admiral (Sir John Balchen) with upwards of 100 Gentlemen of Distinction Volunteers, and the whole Crew (about 1000 Men) drowned. The Colchester of 50 Guns, and the Grampus Snow have shar'd the same ill Fate.

Our further Advices are, That his Majesty's Ship the Aldborough will soon be station'd here And that the Lady of the Honourable John Fenwicke, Esq; lately died in London.

Capt. Crosthwaite came out in Company with Two Squadrons of Men of War, commanded by the Admirals Dawers and Medley, the former was going to Jamaica, and the latter (it's said) to join Admiral Rowley in the Mediterranean.

Two Schooners belonging to this Port, were lately taken in their Passage to the West Indies, by the French, and carried into Martinico.

Since our last was held a Court of Vice Admiralty, when the Conception, the rich Prize lately taken by Capt. Frankland, was condemn'd as a legal Capture

This Day came the unwelcome News of the Loss of the Swallow Man of War, (one of our Station Ships) on Abaco Keys. Capt. Jolab and Part of the Crew are arrived in a large Sloop. Particulars must be deferr'd 'till our next.

Captain Bruce, his Majesty's Engineer for the Bahama Islands, arriv'd from Providence this Day; and our Assembly met according to Adjournment last Tuesday.

We hear that the Rev. Mr. Whitefield, after his Recovery from a dangerous Illness, is now in Boston, where his Reception is as formerly, —— The Pulpits open, Congregations as large, and People as eager to hear.

FRANKLAND's good Conduct, merits highest Praise,
And PAYNE's bold Actions, claim far nobler Lays,
Brave Master MITCHEL should be nam'd,
But the ACROSTICK Writer, should be d—n'd.
